

Our Hospitality Services division is made up of quality industry professionals, trained in providing the best possible service. We can open concession stands for your attendees to purchase their own items or we can arrange with you to provide beverages, breakfast items, box lunches, fruit, pastries, desserts and other food and beverages ideal for hosted breakfasts, lunches or breaks. Our business clients have found that using Mayo Civic Center Hospitality Services gives them the advantage of a quick response should their needs change while they are here.
